

FALL
2016

Transportation Speaker Series: Shared Mobility

11:00AM-12:20PM Public Affairs 2343

10/12

Bruce Schaller - Schaller Consulting

The 2nd Shared Mobility Revolution -- From Taxis, to TNCs, and Beyond: What's the Public Sector Role?

10/19

Bill Rouse - LA Yellow Cab

Understanding the past, present, and future of the taxi industry in Los Angeles

10/26

Biju Mathew - Rider University

Policy Issues in Shared Mobility: Labor

11/2

Marzia Zafar - California Public Utilities Commission

Policy Issues in Shared Mobility: Safety and Insurance

11/7

Mark Kleiman - NYU

Policy Issues in Shared Mobility: Equity and Social Inclusion

11/16

Marcel Porras - City of Los Angeles; Kristen Pawling –NDRC

A Green Path to Shared Mobility

11/21

Steve Polzin - University of South Florida

The Rise of Shared Mobility: Will it Incrementally Change or Transform Urban Travel in the Years Ahead?

11/28

Steven Shladover - UC Berkeley

The Public Policy and Transportation Planning Issues Raised by Increasing Vehicle Automation in the Years Ahead

